

Trivia Cafe Presents: A Treasury of Trivia

Copyright 2010: Howard Rachelson, www.triviacafe.com

-
- | | | |
|----|--|--------|
| 1. | In September, 2006, producers of the most prestigious fashion show in Spain turned away a number of models because they were too ... what? | Skinny |
|----|--|--------|
-
- | | | |
|----|--|---------------------------|
| 2. | The name of what product consumed by humans means "that which prevents sleep" in Arabic? | Coffee, from qahwa |
|----|--|---------------------------|
-
- | | | |
|----|--|--------------|
| 3. | What 2 bones run from the elbow down to the wrist? | Radius, Ulna |
|----|--|--------------|
-
- | | | |
|----|---|-----------|
| 4. | When violin strings are plucked, rather than bowed, it is known in Italian as what? | Pizzicato |
|----|---|-----------|
-
- | | | |
|----|--|-----------------------------------|
| 5. | Which type of fruit was named for the city in Morocco from which it was originally exported? | Tangerine, exported from Tangiers |
|----|--|-----------------------------------|
-
- | | | |
|----|--|------------------------|
| 6. | The first aerial war photographs were taken from a balloon, during what war? | U.S. Civil War, 1850's |
|----|--|------------------------|
-
- | | | |
|----|--|---|
| 7. | What two Academy Award winning movies from the past decade contain the same large number in their title? | Slumdog Millionaire / Million Dollar Baby |
|----|--|---|