

Trivia Café Presents...
“Wide World of Trivia”
Category: BONUS ROUND

Written by Howard Rachelson, © 2013
www.triviacafe.com
howard1@triviacafe.com

1. Two-person beach volleyball was born in the 1920's on the beaches of what city? Santa Monica, California
2. Of Plato, Aristotle, Socrates, which one was a two-time Olympic champion in the grueling 'pankration' competition that combines boxing and wrestling and very few rules? Plato
3. Category, Politics: In 1960, Ceylon became the world's first country to do this; India was second, in 1966, Israel was third, in 1969, and Argentina was fourth, in 1974, to do what? Elect a Woman as President or Prime Minister
4. The internet was born on September 2, 1969, when two computers, at what two universities in California, communicated with each other? UCLA, and this first internet was called Arpanet
5. San Marino in 1848, Venezuela in 1863, Portugal in 1867, and the Netherlands in 1870 were the the first four countries to abolish what? The Death Penalty
6. One scene in this film biography of an Asian politician, which won the Academy Award as Best Film of 1982, featured 300,000 extras. Give the movie title. Gandhi
7. What country, in 2004, celebrated the 200th anniversary as the world's first independent black republic, and it's not located in Africa. Haiti
8. Identify the world's five most populous countries in which cars drive on the left side of the road. India, Indonesia, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Japan